Underground and Train Tickets

British Rail has a range of cheaper tickets after rush hour. Cheap Day Return is for same day travel, Saver for returning another day, and Super Saver for a return any day but Friday. For local trips, purchase tickets from the self-service machines. You will need a ticket before you travel to avoid a fine of £10. National Rail enquires for Charing Cross, Liverpool Station, Victoria, Waterloo, Euston, St. Pancras, King's Cross, Marylebone or Paddington Stations.

Travel cards

There are different travel cards for bus, tube, DLR, and train service within the designated zones in London. You can purchase them directly at the Underground, DLR, train stations, or newsagents. One-Day travel cards provide unlimited travel after 9:30 am Monday-Friday and all day on Saturday and Sunday. Weekly and monthly travel cards, provide unlimited travel for that week or month and requires a photo card. Travel cards are available as a Family Package, valid on buses, tubes, and trains. The Family Travel Card also provides discounts for each child.

We highly recommend to any regular London visitor to get an Oyster card as it will save substantial money! <http://www.tfl.gov.uk/tfl/fares-tickets/oyster/general.asp>
